

Healing in America

School of Holistic Energy Healing

Certified Energy Therapy Training

Professional Certified Instructor:

Laurie DeDecker, R.N.

Courses are designed for those people new to healing as well as experienced practitioners and should be taken in sequence.

We believe that:

- All healing is self-healing
- The human body was designed to be well but sometimes needs support – this is where energy healing is beneficial
- Everyone has the innate ability to do healing
- One just needs to learn how to do it in a grounded, protected manner -- this is what we teach
